

United States Department of Agriculture
Agricultural Marketing Service, Science and Technology
Pesticide Data Program
Commodity Fact Sheet
(Rev 1, 10/22/04))

- PRODUCT: Orange Juice (OJ)
- ACCEPTABLE PRODUCTS: *Any 100% ready-to-serve (RTS), which can be fresh or canned, or frozen concentrate. (Canned is acceptable only when fresh cartons are not available.)
- UNACCEPTABLE PRODUCTS: Any blended orange juice with other citrus juices such as orange/tangerine, orange/grapefruit, orange/cranberry, orange/pineapple, orange smoothies and orange/fruit punches. NOTE: Also avoid any orange juice with added nutritional components such as orange juice with calcium, low carbohydrate orange juice, orange juice with extra vitamin C, E or zinc, and orange juices labeled as immunity enhancers or heart wise which may contain added plant stanol esters.
- AVAILABILITY: Year round.
- SAMPLE SIZE: 1 quart minimum (if 2 pints, make sure they are from the same lot)
- PACKAGING AND SHIPPING: Ship with sufficient gel packs. Desired transit temperature: 32-45 ° F, 1-7° C. (Frozen OJ need not arrive frozen, but should be at refrigerated temperatures or less.)
- ETHYLENE PRODUCER/SENSITIVE: N/A

NOTE:

Ready-to Serve (RTS) and Frozen Concentrate (FZ) Orange Juice will be sampled each quarter, as follows:

Oct-Dec 2004--RTS

Jan-Mar 2005--FZ

Apr-Jun 2005--RTS

Jul-Sep 2005--RTS

This sampling cycle will be repeated through September 2006.

This fact sheet is to be used in conjunction with all applicable PDP Standard Operating Procedures <http://www.ams.usda.gov/science/pdp/SOPs.htm>

